Additional remarks

Set above the street in the middle of a pretty neighborhood of nice homes, this home is designed with an open concept which combines the living room, dining area, and kitchen. Partly circular design for the living room with valuted, knotty pine ceiling. Natural fireplace. The center of the great room is an open stairway leading to the lower level and a handy planning desk area. Open dining area. Kitchen patio doors face south to the patio. Sunny kitchen-great place for house plants. Split-design ranch.
